Period for Reply

A SHORTENED STATUTORY PERIOD FOR REPLY IS SET TO EXPIRE 1 MONTH(S) OR THIRTY (30) DAYS, WHICHEVER IS LONGER, FROM THE MAILING DATE OF THIS COMMUNICATION.

- Extensions of time may be available under the provisions of 37 CFR 1.136(a). In no event, however, may a reply be timely filed after SIX (6) MONTHS from the mailing date of this communication.
- If NO period for reply is specified above, the maximum statutory period will apply and will expire SIX (6) MONTHS from the mailing date of this communication.
- Failure to reply within the set or extended period for reply will, by statute, cause the application to become ABANDONED (35 U.S.C. § 133). Any reply received by the Office later than three months after the mailing date of this communication, even if timely filed, may reduce any earned patent term adjustment. See 37 CFR 1.704(b).

DETAILED ACTION

Claims 1-20 are currently pending in this application.

Election/Restrictions

Restriction is required under 35 U.S.C. 121 and 372.

This application contains the following inventions or groups of inventions which are not so linked as to form a single general inventive concept under PCT Rule 13.1.

In accordance with 37 CFR 1.499, applicant is required, in reply to this action, to elect a single invention to which the claims must be restricted.

Group I, claims 1-4, 14-15, drawn to a system for the production of recombinant N-glycosylated target proteins, the system comprising a prokaryotic organism into which is introduced a genetic information encoding for a metabolic apparatus capable of carrying out the N-glycosylation of the target protein, wherein said prokaryotic organism also contains the genetic information required for the expression of one or more recombinant target proteins.

Group II, claim(s) 5-9, drawn to a method of producing recombinant N-glycosylated target proteins, the method comprising the introduction of a genetic information encoding for a metabolic apparatus capable of carrying out the N-glycosylation of the target protein into a prokaryotic organism, wherein also the genetic information required for the expression of one or more recombinant target proteins is introduced into said prokaryotic organism.

Group III, claims 10, 17, drawn to proteins and pharmaceuticals produced by the method.

Group IV, claims 11, 13, 16, 18, 20, drawn to vaccines, cytokines and medicaments for use in humans, animals or plants.

Group V, claims 12, 19, drawn to industrial enzymes, functional food, cosmetics, packaging materials or textiles comprising the protein.

Art Unit: 1652

The inventions listed as Groups I-V do not relate to a single general inventive concept under PCT Rule 13.1 because, under PCT Rule 13.2, they lack the same or corresponding special technical features for the following reasons:

An international or a national stage application containing claims to different categories of invention will be considered to have unity of invention if the claims are drawn only to one of the following combinations of categories:

- 1) A product and a process specially adapted for the manufacture of said product or
- 2) A product and process of use of said product; or
- 3) A product, a process specially adapted for the manufacture of the said product and a use of said product; or
- 4) A process and an apparatus or means specifically adapted for carrying out the said process ; or
- 5) A product, a process specially adapted for the manufacture of the said product and an apparatus or means specifically designed for carrying out the said process.

37 CFR 1.475(c) states: If an application contains claims to more or less than one of the combination of categories of invention set forth in paragraph (b) of this section, unity of invention might not be present.

37 CFR 1.475(d) also states: If multiple products, processes of manufacture or uses are claimed, the first invention of the category first mentioned in the claims of the application and the first recited invention of each other categories related thereto will be considered as the main invention in the claims, see PCT Article 17(3)(a) 1.476(c).

37 CFR 1.475(e) further states; the determination whether a group of inventions is so linked as to form a single inventive concept shall be made without regard to whether the inventions are claimed in separate claims or as alternative within a single claim.

Art Unit: 1652

In the instant application the products of groups I, III, IV and V differ substantially from one another to the extent that they have different structure and function and can be used exclusive of each other such that they do not share unity of invention under 37 CFR 1.475.

Applicant is advised that the reply to this requirement to be complete must include (i) an election of a species or invention to be examined even though the requirement be traversed (37 CFR 1.143) and (ii) identification of the claims encompassing the elected invention.

The election of an invention or species may be made with or without traverse. To reserve a right to petition, the election must be made with traverse. If the reply does not distinctly and specifically point out supposed errors in the restriction requirement, the election shall be treated as an election without traverse.

Should applicant traverse on the ground that the inventions or species are not patentably distinct, applicant should submit evidence or identify such evidence now of record showing the inventions or species to be obvious variants or clearly admit on the record that this is the case. In either instance, if the examiner finds one of the inventions unpatentable over the prior art, the evidence or admission may be used in a rejection under 35 U.S.C.103(a) of the other invention.

Applicant is reminded that upon the cancellation of claims to a non-elected invention, the inventorship must be amended in compliance with 37 CFR 1.48(b) if one or more of the currently named inventors is no longer an inventor of at least one claim remaining in the application. Any amendment of inventorship must be accompanied by a request under 37 CFR 1.48(b) and by the fee required under 37 CFR 1.17(i).
